– Feelings from Lapland –

Initiating the Kuksa mug at Restaurant Saaga

Stories about Lapland and your own Kuksa mug as a pleasant memory of the Lappish dinner

At Saaga you will find a slice of the rugged and beautiful nature as well as regional dishes and an atmosphere full of the exotic charm of the North. We bring the enchantment of Lapland to our guests in our service, interior decor and table settings, as well as in our food. The interior decor has the touch of Lappish artists and artisans. The ancient style carved wooden Kuksa mug is one of the best known household articles of Lapland, and a true multi-purpose utensil.

At Saaga Restaurant you can initiate Lappish style your own Kuksa mug, which is a pleasant memory to take with. Initiating the Kuksa Mug is a theme package fitting nicely between the dinner courses. During the program you will hear stories about Lapland, the history of the Kuksa mug and tips how to use it.
